Ex-Police in Industry & Commerce (EPIC) is a highly reputable national association for former police officers with exemplary service records who are either employed or self-employed professionals offering investigation services, security related services or providers of support services or equipment. Members of EPIC enjoy a unique selling point (USP). We have all undergone specialised training in one form or another in a disciplined organisation and are now able to offer our clients a proven professional, honest and ethical service. The EPIC brand 'INTEGRITY ASSURED' is sought after by those outside EPIC who wish to promote their businesses under the EPIC accreditation scheme and pay for the privilege after stringent examination. As a member, this 'accreditation' is free along with over 20 further benefits to help you and your business. For membership details please contact the Secretary, Rod Repton via the following link:
